Sight Restored.
Grand Rapids, Wis., August, 1906.
I take great pleasure in announcing to my correspondents, clients and friends generally, that after five years and more of laboring in the darkness, the last two years of which has been practically total blindness, I have recovered sight to such an extent that I can now see to get about, and as I the aid of glasses read, as easily as I could expect to do had defective vision, resulting from cataract never existed.

I expect to continue to devote my time and attention exclusively to the practice of my profession, as I have heretofore done. Have recently removed my office to the new Wood County National Bank Building, at the east end of wagon bridge.

I cannot refrain from saying that I owe this remarkable restoration of sight to the surgical knowledge and skill of Dr. W. D. Harvey, specialist of this city. Very respectfully,
J. W. Cochran.

A Welsh Pony Farm.

Marshfield Times.—C. B. Blodgett received word on Monday that the shipment of Welsh ponies, which he recently ordered, would leave Scotland on August 11th and would probably arrive in Marshfield about Sept. 1st. Mr. Blodgett some time ago ordered through the Gallraith Importing Co., of Jansville, six Welsh ponies and a stallion, the animals to be purchased from the well known Highland farm in Scotland, who make a business of raising these ponies for the market, his father having set aside a certain amount of the large Blodgett farm for that purpose.

It is hoped they will arrive in time to be exhibited at the fair next month. They will also be taken to the fairs at Wausau, Chippewa Falls, LaCrosse and will be shown at the International Horse Show in Chicago.

Vote Your Own Ticket.
Wausau Daily Herald.—Democrats should not sell the aid of republicans at the primaries, where there is a contest between democrats for a nomination, for the reason that the nomination, under the primary law, means an expression of the party will in the selection of candidates. When republicans vote for a democratic candidate, they must vote for a republican ticket. Principle is cut out. It is small, petty, crooked politics, and in direct violation of the spirit and letter of the law. Then, democratic dignity and self respect suggest that republicans settle their own family brawls.

The public wants as good, honest, capable men in office, from common to governor. Republican candidates know that you democrats cannot vote for them in the primaries and be honest.

Let us have a great democratic turnout at the primaries. Let every democratic candidate receive all the democratic preference and support from democrats to which he is entitled. The democratic party is united from one end of Wisconsin to the other, from one end of the Union to the other, and it ought to proceed to demonstrate this fact of unity of purpose to the people of the country. To demonstrate our loyalty and our devotion and respect to Bryan, our preference for the unsplit leader of the rank and file, the grand, gallant and unrepentant tribune of the untried and undaunted democracy.

Stand up for your own party in the primaries. Do your duty and discharge your honest obligations to yourself as a law abiding citizen and to the body politic of which you are a part. Let republicans vote for whom they will. There used to be a lot of them but the chances are that thousands of them have seen the error of their way, which is devotedly to be hoped for the good of the country.

Spooner and Presidency.
Memphis Commercial Appeal.—Why is it necessary to run Mr. Roosevelt again? Messrs. Taft, Root, Spooner and others are far better than he. If republican policies are honest and honorable, the question of candidates is immaterial. The nomination of Roosevelt would mean that the republican party is on the verge of collapse, and that desperate cases require desperate remedies. Roosevelt is hardly apt to be the nominee, and, if he is, it will be a confession of weakness foretelling certain defeat.

In the senatorial district comprising Wood, Adams, Marinette and Waushara counties, the La Follette people have designated Assemblyman Henry to be their standard bearer despite the fact that Theodore Brazen of Grand Rapids, who has come out as a candidate, has long been a follower of La Follette and has stood with him on all the leading propositions. Brazen has no made his campaign. Brazen is, however, a man of independence and the La Follette leaders fear he may be troublesome. Assemblyman Henry was one of the most regular of the members of the last assembly in having his ticket punched at the executive chamber and the La Follette people want Henry in the senate, not because of his moral ability and value as a constructive legislator, but because they can depend upon him to dance every time they pull the bell cord. Although the fear of the faithless is worn by J. B. Salsinger in the senatorial district comprising Clark and Marathon counties it looks very much in these counties as if L. A. Marsh would be the nominee for the senate.—Breitbart Wisconsin.

When republican newspapers and campaign speakers exhort their readers or listeners to continue "our present prosperity by keeping the republican party in power," they can place a cheap estimate on their intelligence. It is so absurd to think that a political party, not to mention the republican party, can make times good that discussion of the proposition would reflect upon the intelligence of the person undertaking it. It must not be forgotten that the government creates nothing; on the contrary it is a pauper, dependent entirely on its subjects for support. It neither sows nor reaps; it handles no tools, does no work. How then can it create prosperity? It can do it only as it robs one to pay another. But this is not prosperity; it is robbery. True, but it is precisely what passes for republican prosperity.

According to the Chicago Tribune the number of homicides and deaths by violence in the United States in 1905 was 9,212, as against 8,182 in 1904. Suicides 9,082, as against 8,240 in 1904. Killed on steam railroads in 1905, 3,112; injured, 15,901; killed on electric and elevated railroads, 404; injured, 2,622. Commenting on these figures, Everybody's Magazine says: "These statistics are unpalatable but perhaps they are none the less trustworthy on that account. We murder and manslaughter nine times as many as the Germans, four times as many as the English, Scotch and Welsh. America seems to be a little careless, to put it mildly."

Heat-Rash on Children.
"Modions," in Ward and Works (St. Louis), says of this trouble: "It is a form of toxicemia, torturing skin eruption, commonly known as 'heat,' from which young children—and even adults—suffer so severely, and often relieved by frequent bathing and the use of dusting powder. Talcum powder is good, but the best we have ever used is composed of one part powdered oxide of zinc and three parts powdered lycopodium (or 'pill powder' as it is known in shops). The fissures of the joints are most frequently affected, and often develop a very troublesome eczema. We have often seen babies sweltering and crying in their 'finery' in order to gratify the false pride and vanity of their foolish mothers, when they should have been clad in a very thin muslin gown, with the lightest possible 'flannel' bandage to protect the abdomen from any of sudden changes of temperature (which, increasing the thickness of the flannel, according to the season or weather, until the best known measure for these diseases should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. Make Hay While the Sun Shines.
"There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. A grand entertainment is being prepared in Rudolph under the direction of the Sisters, to celebrate the Silver Jubilee, or the 25th anniversary of their Rev. Pastor's ordination. The people are looking forward to it with pleasure as all former entertainments of the Catholic School have been a great success. This is expected to eclipse them all, as a Silver Jubilee occurs but once in a life time.

The leading features of the program will be a historical drama in three acts representing the martyrdom of St. Catherine of Alexandria, under the emperor Maximian. Far more wonderful than fiction are the historic facts represented here.

The entertainment will be held two successive evenings, so as to give all an opportunity to attend.

On one of these evenings diplomas will be awarded to five of the Catholic School pupils, viz: Walter Akey, Louise Akey, Adeline Casper, Elizabeth Casper and Mary Vainala, all of whom received an average standing ranging from 91 to 99 per cent.

Otto Thorsen and cousin Miss Annie Thorsen left Monday for Minneapolis. Mr. Thorsen expects to go to the west from there where he will work in the harvest fields.

More than Sixty in Danger.
More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually originating from prostatic glands. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes, "I suffered with enlarged prostatic gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old."  be their belief that the auto will soon supersede horses for the sections of the country where the roads are good.
 There will be a great saving of time in making the routes and after the first cost of the machine it is claimed they can be more cheaply maintained than horses.

Sight Restored.
 Grand Rapids, Wis., August, 1906.
 I take great pleasure in announcing to my correspondents, clients and friends generally, that after five years and more of laboring in the darkness, the last two years of which has been practically total blindness, I have recovered sight to such an extent that I can now see to get about, and with the aid of glasses wear as easily as I could expect eyes to do had defective vision, resulting from cataract never existed.

I expect to continue to devote my time and attention exclusively to the practice of my profession, as I have heretofore done. Have recently removed my office to the new Wood County National Bank Building, at the east end of wagon bridge.

I cannot refrain from saying that I owe this remarkable restoration of sight to the surgical knowledge and skill of Dr. W. D. Harvie, specialist of this city. Very respectfully,
 J. W. Cochran.

Life of Temptations.
 One who has not worked a number of years at the business of issuing a newspaper cannot realize the number of temptations that are thrown before an editor each week in the effort to lead him from the straight and narrow path of ten cents an inch for display matter and five cents a line for advertisements. While sitting in a barber shop recently waiting for a shave, a man with a pug-dog face made the remark that any editor in the country could be bought up for five dollars and that it was being done. I promptly told him that with his observations were not consistent with strict veracity. You can always tell a crook, because he has everything else sized up for the same sort of a fellow. A man has only one standard to judge people by, and that is himself. We told this fellow that we had never sold out the policy of the paper for five dollars for several reasons, one of the best of which was that we had never been offered five dollars, or any other price. Whether the public has been under the impression that we are above being tempted by the glitter of gold, or that the paper is not worth subsidizing, we have not been able to discover up to date.

But we are wondering from the subject. We started in to tell how some of the outside advertisers try to wheedle and give us in return about anything but cash. One man offered us twelve half quart bottles of the very best Kentucky whiskey if we would run an innocent little ad for him twenty-six times in our great moral and religious weekly. This was a great temptation but by hurrying out and taking a large drink of tea water we managed to withstand the temptation until we had gotten a letter written and mailed. Then a man came along with a very elastic proposition in the shape of an offer to trade a quantity of rubber stock for some advertising space. He told us all about the high price of rubber, the methods of gathering the crop, how it is marketed and the enormous profits. Just as we reached for the fountain pen to sign the contract the agent happened to mention as yet, but the trees had not been planted as yet, but that as soon as enough money had come in from the sale of stock it was the intention to commence clearing the land. This another vision of sudden wealth faded away, and as we slowly shook the hand of the agent we asked him to call again in about a hundred years or later, if his rubber trees had not begun to bear by that time.

Stock in gold, silver and copper mines has been offered in large blocks on numerous occasions. Some have been so anxious to get advertising space that they have offered us stock for five cents a share, which they assured us would be worth a dollar a share inside of ninety days.
 Just think of it. Sometimes they were so positive that the stock would go up before we could open our eyes we have wondered why they did not keep the stock and keep the profits themselves. One fellow wanted to trade us a patent doghouse that you put out the terrore which would make one ton of coal go as far as five. It was summer when this offer came, so we did not need it.

The very latest offer which arrived this morning was one to trade stock in a breakfast food concern for advertising space. If it were broke-fast food it might be eaten, or fed to the horse, or mixed with milk and given to the dog, but the stock in one of these concerns brings a lower price now than good, clean print paper since the trust was busted. Maybe they imagine up in Minneapolis that we keep a goat. We are anxiously waiting for the next offer.

A Welsh Pony Farm.
 Marshfield Times.—O. E. Blodgett received word on Monday that the shipment of Welsh ponies, which he recently ordered, would leave Scotland on August 11th and would probably arrive in Marshfield about Sept.
 1st. Mr. Blodgett some time ago ordered through the Galbraith Importing Co., of Janesville, six Welsh ponies and a stallion, the animals to be purchased from the well known Highland farm in Scotland, who make a business of raising these ponies for the market, his father having set aside a certain amount of the large Blodgett farm for that purpose.

It is hoped they will arrive in time to be exhibited at the fair next month. They will also be taken to the fair at Wausau, Chippewa Falls, LaCrosse and will be shown at the International Horse Show in Chicago.

Through the Jungle

From Ocean to Ocean

Since the discovery of the isthmus of Panama, or Isthmus, as it was at first called, there is hardly a spot on earth that has attracted so much attention as this narrow strip of land.

It was the first to cross the divide and saw the Pacific on September 25, 1513. Its history during the nearly 100 years that have since elapsed is filled with stories of bloodshed and cruelty.

The Spaniards slaughtered the Indians as they did the Inconquistables. The Spaniards under such commanders as Pizarro and Morgan committed crimes against the Spaniards that appear almost incredible.

The sack of the old City of Panama is one of the darkest pages in the history of nations. It is a relief to turn from these subjects to a history more uplifting.

From Tehuantepec to New Granada every effort had been made fifty years ago to find a suitable route for a ship canal through the Cordillera.

Irish remained with the details of the canal, and English engineers sent out an expedition named Gage to make a survey.

He returned with maps and figures and wrote a book describing an alleged practicable route. All were false and it is doubtful if he ever penetrated the isthmus.

On his statement that there was a way of only 150 feet in height above sea level, a company was formed with a capital of $2,000,000.

to construct a canal. Gage's falsehoods were speedily discovered, but an English party sent up the Savana river in 1853, after penetrating a few miles, returned in despair.

Some twenty men killed by the Chiriquians, Indians, a fierce tribe of the interior.

Sought Through Route. The idea at the time was to discover a route from Calcutta to the Pacific, to Darien harbor, on the Pacific.

To this end the United States steamship Cyane was sent with an expeditionary party to Calcutta.

On the eighteenth day they had a great misfortune. Truxton only ten days later, and it was now that the sixteen survivors would not live for his return.

They believed he was dead and a council of the officers decided to countermand and try to reach Calcutta by sea.

It was a severe struggle to reach this conclusion, but it seemed the only hope. Truxton, seated by Holmes' grave, sadly penned a letter of explanation to Spain.

should the letter over again the place, and in it he begged him to push on after the party.

Then Parks was missing and on March 5 a start was made on the march to Calcutta by the former being abandoned to his fate.

Both Grenadians were very ill, but some of the seamen threw away their arms to assist them along. All the march was resumed. The Grenadians refused the next day; they had built a small craft, but it was soon wrecked.

Truxton took three men to push their way through the river and secure aid for the rest of the party, leaving Mr. Truxton in command. Avery, a volunteer, and Golden and Wilson of the Cyane, volunteered to accompany him.

After many parting councils Strain sadly left the main body on February 12. Occasionally a bird or an iguana was shot and furnished a noxious food for the famished men.

Lombard and Castilla failed entirely on the twentieth day. Holmes, who had lost his head, had a wounded foot that was becoming gangrenous.

Some lizards, a turkey and a peacock were shot, but there was no march until the thirty-seventh day, and then only for half a mile.

Lombard, Parks and Johnson left the camp and did not return. In their terrible sufferings they had matured a plan to hide until Holmes died, exhumed the body and submerge it in the sea.

On the thirty-eighth day Holmes breathed his last and his encephalitis body, with his mouth ajar, was laid to rest on the banks of the river in a grave hollowed out with knives and an ax.

Decided to Go Back. Lieutenant Strain was now twenty-one days gone, and it was now that the sixteen survivors would not live for his return.

A LITTLE TALK ADDRESSED TO THE SCHOOLGIRLS

The Ideal Girl of Yesterday—A Willowy, Delicate Creature—The Schoolgirl of To-Day, While More Robust, Should Look After Her Health

First—Don't Try to Pay Your Way Through School with Your Own Work—Substitute Plain Water for Soda and Fruit for Candy—Hot Biscuits Not for a Beauty.

BY MARGARET E. SANGSTER.

If you were, Dorothy, in the house of some old-fashioned grand pick up one of those elegant gift books which were in vogue in the '60's, you will remember the steel engraving that showed the ideal girl of yesterday.

She was a willowy creature, with a delicate face, long slender fingers, shading her cheeks with very small hands, and long graceful limbs. She had been taught to do embroidery and other fine needle work. She excelled in the piano playing of her day, which was a less severe accomplishment than now, and she was refined and respectable. But there was something lacking in her, which is natural in the twentieth century. She was a girl, and girls are not supposed to be perfect.

Day after day the non-heated strain and his comrades had pushed their way through fearful obstacles, much of the path being cut by himself. Reduced to skeletons, they at last reached the village of Yaviza, to find a man who had been waiting for them. He managed to reach the ranch of an Irishman named Donnet, on the Savana, who gave him the warmest aid. The Virago returned from Panama and boats laden with provisions were soon on their way up Chiquiqua river and the rescued men were brought to the city of Yaviza.

They were light, slender, and still alive, but covered with wood ticks, and he died a little later. Polanco's body was found, as described, on Castilla's grave. Through all McGinnis had clung to the American flag, wrapped around his body. Later it was wrapped around the coffin of Verrill, who died at Yaviza. The others reached Panama, where Mr. Boggs died. The survivors crossed the isthmus to Aspinwall, all that were left of the twenty-seven stalwart young men who started up the Calcutta river on January 17, 1854.

One-third of the entire expeditionary party perished from hunger, or its effects, or its extreme cold on that dreadful march that began at the Atlantic and ended at the Pacific ocean.

VIENNA'S RICH CHOIR COMING.

Chorus of Wealthy Men to Sing for American Charities.

New York.—New York next spring is to hear for the first time the Vienna Male Chorus society, composed of well-to-do or wealthy men, who are coming all the way from Europe at their own expense to give here two or three concerts for charitable institutions.

The chorus consists of 300 voices, and the members are prominent in the social life of the Austrian capital. On their American tour they will pay their own expenses, said Felix Kramer, the conductor of the chorus.

He said, sotto voce: "How can that girl's mother let her wear those clumsy, thick-soled shoes?" Being somewhat ticked off of temper and well acquainted with the youth, he was not surprised at the remark. The chorus was adapted to the climate and the weather and enabled me to take long walks without discomfort. He crushingly replied: "No elegant young woman ever takes long walks, or wears anything except thin-soled shoes."

I suppose few girls who have grown up under the excellent regime which

The said primary election will be held at the regular polling places in each precinct, and the polls will be open from 6 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Grand Rapids, this 14th day of August, A. D. 1906.

GEO. W. DAVIS, county clerk.

AMONG CRANBERRY MEN.

EDITED BY W. H. FITCH.

(All communications and special exchanges relating to this department should be sent to Cranberry, Wood County, Wis.)

Personal Mention.

Mr. O. Kraschke of Peot, Burnett Co., Wis., has been paying a visit to the cranberry marshes in the Wisconsin valley districts and reports prospects encouraging for a good crop. He found the matter of distribution was a serious one in the minds of the growers, and that system should be looked forward to with expectation.

A closer connection between the different growing districts is another result that is confidently believed will follow, paving the way for progressive action that will insure the advantages of all concerned in the industry.

Harvesting.

Growers are securing pickers for gathering the current crop, and it is hoped a satisfactory season will be experienced as to quantity and favorable climate conditions.

A good yield is a great incentive for number to assist in its picking, and where the weather is reasonable, the stay of those engaged is considerably prolonged.

The problem of harvesting continues to be an engrossing one and the merits respectively of raking or gathering by hand, will be a subject of study and consideration at the hands of those concerned.

In the case of the precision of securing seems to be on the increase, but in the west it is reported to be a rule only, in case of necessity. The difference in methods is caused by unlikeliness in character of marshes and future procedure will doubtless be determined by the exigencies of the case.

ARMENIA.

The base ball game which was played between the Minor and Major League boys at Minor Sunday came in favor of Major. The score being 15 to 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clapper of Nekeosa has been visiting at the O. Nelson home.

Rose Goodness is staying with her grandparents in and returned home yesterday.

Miss Clara Shining returned from New Home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Gustafson are entertaining Mrs. Gustafson's mother and sister of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolorquist of Chicago visited at the O. Carlstrom home a few days last week. Mr. Stolorquist is a brother of Mrs. Carlstrom.

Miss Nathalie Hennel of Finley commenced teaching school in Dist. No. 3 on Monday.

J. D. Hazzling made a trip to Mauston the first part of the week. Oscar Sparby of Marathon City visited at the O. Brunko home Saturday and Sunday and also with Mr. friends.

Wants a Big Fee.

Great fortunes do not always bring with them peace and tranquillity, as Laura Riggs, divorced wife of Actor McConnel, has found. Mrs. Riggs recently won a suit in which she claims into possession of $300,000, but now she has been sued by Dr. O. Hendricks of Atlantic City, N. J., who claims that Laura owes $390,000 for professional services.
